

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

LICENSES ARE GRANTED

Judge Robinson Issues Permits to Forty Liquor Dealers.

REPRESENT SUM OF $30,200.

Proprietors of Saloons in Hampton, Phoebus, County and Buckroe Beach Apply to Court for the Privilege of Doing Business.

Forty licenses to conduct saloons in Hampton, Phoebus and the county were granted by Judge Clarence W. Robinson, in the Circuit Court yesterday morning, while two of the applicants were passed by until a later date in the present session of the court.

Of the licenses issued by the court, twenty-three are in Phoebus, fifteen in Hampton and two in the county.
The State license is $550; in Hampton the city license is $150 and in Phoebus the license tax is $250, thus showing that the Phoebus saloon men paid out a total of $18,400, the Hampton licensees representing the sum of $10,500 and the county licensees $1,300, or a total of $30,200, which was paid into the treasuries of the county, Hampton and Phoebus by the liquor dealers before they could secure permits to continue in business for the coming twelve months.

Must Obey Law.
Before issuing the licenses Judge Robinson admonished the applicants that he will not tolerate any violation of the liquor laws and that any dealer found guilty of selling on Sunday or a breach of the Byrd law will have his license revoked by the court.

In the cases of Charles Epstein, in East Queen street, and Thomas Kennedy, colored, in North King street, Hampton, the court said that unfavorable reports of the two places had been received by the court and for that reason each applicant was told that his case will be considered later in the term.

Licenses Granted.
The successful saloon men are given as follows:
Hampton—L. F. Whiting, J. R.
Stuart, S. S. Lawson, Leonard Topping, William E. Dobson, George R.
Wood, E. M. Turnbull, Frank W.
Moore, J. S. Weber, H. B. Freeman, S. S. Howard, R. C. Lee, Curtis & Alexander, Armistead & Miller.

Phoebus—William C. Terry, Kearney Brothers, Nicholas Leonard, Paul Horsman, P. A. Fuller, J. J. Burns, W. P. Wheatcroft, Thos. Horner, John Sherman, J. W. Scott, A. A. Kraft, James O'Connor, H. O. Hancock, H. F.
Holland, George H. Lancer, John H.
Handle, T. J. and J. J. Daly, J. A.
Cowan, Joseph Glanville, J. G. Crawford and Diggs & Diggs.

Buckroe Beach—Moore & Schraudt, W. A. Mays, of Phoebus, was granted a license to conduct a junk shop in that town.

DEATH OF MRS. BELL.

Former Fox Hill Lady Passes Away at Home of Her Cousin.

Mrs. Ellen Bell, 55 years old, died at the home of her cousin, Mrs.
Sarah Oldfield, near Phoebus, at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, following an illness of several days with bronchial pneumonia. She was born in Fox Hill and her only surviving sister, Mrs. Benjamin Rowe, now residing in that village.

Funeral services will be conducted from Mrs. Oldfield's residence this afternoon at 3 o'clock and the burial will be in Oakland cemetery. The pallbearers will be Messrs. G. H.
Oldfield, R. J. Oldfield, J. W. Oldfield, Lyron Miles, P. A. Fuller, Sr., and Sylvester Minge.

Wealth of Florida Everglades.

Through December, and into the early spring, the roses bloom a over this favored land. It is hard for the Northern traveler to realize that it is the climate and not the calendar that is reversed when he visits Florida. It is not surprising to find scattered through these many thriving towns along the Florida coast thousands of well-to-do retired merchants and business men, who are spending the sunset hours of life in a land of unequalled climate. There were some few travelers who insisted that this "always afternoon" and "lotus land" suggestion did not suit them; they enjoyed their few weeks sandwiched into a busy Northern winter, but persisted in saying that they preferred snowbanks and activity of the Northland. However, when asked:
"Why do you not stay in the North if you prefer it?" they seemed nonplussed for an answer.

On every side of the trees were laden with fruit, and in some cases had been propped up to enable them to carry their heavy load.

In many places fertilizer has to be used, but in Florida everything needed seems to lie close at hand, and there are great phosphate beds right in the state, which are formed by the bones of mastodons and other prehistoric creatures known to us by name only. Florida might be called the land of "hidden treasures," for here tracts that look like bare coral reef can be developed into profitable soil. Apparently every inch of Florida can be made profitable if the worker "knows how." Even the turpentine forests are not a small feature in the profitable industries.—National Magazine.

Westerners Looking for Farms.
Mr. John McCowan, of Michigan, Messrs. Koon and Keller, of West Virginia, are here spending a few days with Mr. M. O. Lackey, looking up the purchase of truck farms.
These gentlemen seem much interested in this section and will locate either in this county or Matanzas.

FIRE ON RAILROAD TRAIN.
Accomac Prisoner Brought Here for Safekeeping.

Sheriff Kellum, of Accomac county, came to this city last night, bringing Harry Fitchett, a negro, who is to be kept in the local jail pending his trial on the charge of firing upon a N. Y.
P. & N. railroad train, and with attempting to kill the county officers who arrested him.

Accomac is building a new jail and has no safe temporary lock-up.

NEGRO MINISTER SUES BOARD OF DEACONS

Rev. W. F. Jones Asks for $2,500 Damages for Being Ousted from Pulpit.

Declaring that he has suffered personal humiliation and disgrace through the action of the board of deacons in dismissing him from the pulpit of the Third Baptist church, colored, Rev. Mansfield F. Jones yesterday instituted suit in the Circuit Court asking for $2,500 damages on malicious persecution. The minister names George W. Ficus, Isaac Bryant and W. F. Fox, all prominent negro men and members of the board of deacons, as the defendants in the suit. Fay S. Collier is the attorney for the negro minister.

It is understood that the three men published a card, which the negro minister took offense at, and that the bill set forth that Fields, Fox and Bryant were responsible for the dismissal from the pulpit of the minister, who was sustained by his congregation.

Several months ago the Third Baptist church came into prominence when the police officers were asked to attend the church so that services could be held. The minister had been deposed by the deacons, but when the congregation met to take up the case it sustained Rev. Jones. Later the minister was relieved of the pulpit, and the suit is the outcome of that controversy.

DEAF AND DUMB NEGRO CONFESSES ROBBERIES

Burglar Makes Rich Haul of Cigarettes and Whiskey at Cross Roads Stores.

John Roy, a deaf and dumb negro, was arrested yesterday morning by County Officer John E. Tignor on the charge of housebreaking. Roy is accused of breaking into the stores of W. T. Patrick and H. B. Freeman, at the cross roads, during Friday night, and stealing tobacco, cigarettes and whiskey. A Mr. Patrick's the negro broke out a window pane in the rear window and secured an entrance through this into the main store room. At Mr. Freeman's he succeeded in breaking a glass, and by pushing his arm through the hole, pulled two quarts of liquor from the counter.

Officer Tignor started to work on the robberies as soon as they were reported to him yesterday and in less than three hours he had Roy behind the bars. The officer was given a clue and after pressing Roy with the charge, the negro broke down and confessed that he robbed the two places. The tobacco and cigarettes were recovered, while Roy also informed Officer Tignor where he had hidden the whiskey.

The accused will be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow.

Last night Officer Tignor arrested John Carey, a well known negro man around the cross roads, on a warrant charging him with threatening to kill Daniel Herbert, also colored.

ELGIN AND CHICAGO.

Smaller City Proves Unfaithful in Butter Deals With Parent.

Chicago has learned with dismay that all the best butter that is made at Elgin is shipped to New York for the delectation of the purse-proud penizens of the more or less effete East. The distressing facts came out a few days ago in testimony before the senate committee which is investigating the cost of living.

Everybody knows that Elgin is headquarters for butter. Now, Elgin is located, as it were in the very shadow of Chicago, and being only some two counties away is in almost hourly danger of annexation. Naturally Chicago is surprised and pained to know that Elgin has been playing her false. Chicago has pointed with pride to Elgin as a child of lacteal destiny, and an unfailing source of gastronomical joy, little dreaming that Elgin was shipping all the first-class butter to New York and was working off on inferior brand on her big and patronizing next-door neighbor. Can any one imagine a more serious blow to Chicago's pride?

It cannot be expected that Chicago will tamely endure such a disconcerting condition of affairs. Chicago pays good money and wants good butter.
She can buy oleomargarine and axle grease at home—and on very favorable terms—if the federal government is not too harsh with the oleo moonshining industry. Moxley is grinding out butter faster than 100 men can stack it. There is no lack of near-butter, and with Elgin in easy reach there should not be any dearth of real butter. There would not be if Elgin had any state pride or any befitting consciousness of the greatness of Chicago.

It is past mortal comprehension to know what Chicago is going to do to Elgin. Chicago has original methods, and it is as far to guess on a horse race or a jury's verdict than to hazard a prophecy as to what she is going to do next. Of one thing we may be assured, and that is that whatever Chicago does to Elgin it will be good and plenty.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

new pastor preach have expressed themselves as being delighted with him. His sermons are dignified, persuasive, tender, and eloquent, and the public is cordially invited to hear him Sunday morning and evening. His morning theme will be, "The Word of Faith That We Preach," his evening theme will be, "Blind Bartimeus and His Healer."

The Men's Bible class will meet promptly at 10 a. m., and every member is requested to be present, and all men are invited and will receive an enthusiastic welcome. Rev. Mr.
